briefly

Mazu culture shines at Expo

With a strategic geologic advantage, close ties with Taiwan and a friendly environment, Fujian province, a major economic player on the Taiwan Straits, is attracting growing attention from home and abroad.

Way Mountain upgrades services

A celebration ceremony of Xiamen selected as the World Expo host city was held recently.

Hakkka Earth Building in Xiamen

The Hakkka Earth Building in Xiamen has been upgraded and became a sightseeing attraction.

BRIEF NOTES

Fujian culture

Fujian Province hopes to rejuvenate hot spring culture.

Provincial government continues cooperation between Fujian and New South Wales.

From Xiamen to the World Expo

Fujian Pavilion opens in Shanghai.

Expansion plans to reinvigorate coastal zone

Around the performing venue, the audience can participate in the performance and interact with the displays. After the performances, there will be puppet shows, singing and dancing performances. The different shows will last 30 to 60 minutes. Four performances will be held each day.

Pavilion sails into expo

By Huang Guihua

The Fujian Pavilion welcomes visitors to show its achievements in urban development and cultural tourism. The exhibition is divided into three major sections.

Entertainment galore during Fujian week

By MEI WEIMING

With a 500-strong show team, Fujian Pavilion at the Shanghai Expo, which Fujian today and its history and culture, is set to magnify the unique local feature, and attract more visitors.

Pavilion features

The Fujian Pavilion features both geography and culture, which gives visitors a general view on Fujian’s achievement of maintaining a balanced social, economical and ecological environment.

World Expo Fujian Week

Date: June 28 - July 2

Expansion plans to reinvigorate coastal zone

According to Mr. Zhang, the development of Xiamen as the World Expo host city has received substantial progress.

Province hopes to rejuvenate hot spring culture

By MEI WEIMING

With a rich history and abundant resources, Fujian’s hot springs have a long history. Over 500 hot springs are scattered across the province, which can be dated back to the Song Dynasty (960-1127), an “official bath” for the Qing government.

镇政府 aims to continue cooperation between Fujian and New South Wales.

Expansion plans to reinvigorate coastal zone

With the strategic geologic advantage, close ties with Taiwan and a friendly environment, Fujian province, a major economic player on the Taiwan Straits, is attracting growing attention from home and abroad.

With a rich history and abundant resources, Fujian’s hot springs have a long history. Over 500 hot springs are scattered across the province, which can be dated back to the Song Dynasty (960-1127), an “official bath” for the Qing government.

Expansion plans to reinvigorate coastal zone

After the State Council’s pledge of support for the coastal zone, the Economic Zone of the Western Coast of the East China Sea, has become an important part of the national strategy.

Expansion plans to reinvigorate coastal zone

The town aims to be a heavy industry industry. With a rich mineral resources, Fujian is expected to develop heavy industry.

Expansion plans to reinvigorate coastal zone

The town aims to be a heavy industry industry. With a rich mineral resources, Fujian is expected to develop heavy industry.

Expansion plans to reinvigorate coastal zone

The town aims to be a heavy industry industry. With a rich mineral resources, Fujian is expected to develop heavy industry.