Sichuan abounds in festive
Spring Festival events

By LI FUSHENG
lfusheng@chinadaily.com.cn

Spring Festival is around the corner and many locals are ready to celebrate the Year of the Monkey. It is said that Sichuan province is in Southwest China is an ideal destination to experience traditional folk customs.

This year, the Chengdu Temple Fair, Chengdu Jinsha Sun Festival and the 7th Chengdu Du Fu Festival will be held from Feb 5 to 22.

The Chengdu Temple Fair will focus on the themes of theThree Kingdoms, and food. The event, planned and implemented by the Chengdu Museum, will feature performances, traditional Chinese arts and lantern exhibitions. Visitors will have a chance to taste Chinese and foreign snacks and check out traditional artworks.

Chengdu Jinsha Sun Festival is the first Sichuan Festival of Cultural Consumption as well as the Yangtze River Temple Fair. It will feature performances, traditional Chinese arts and lantern exhibitions. Visitors will have a chance to taste Chinese and foreign snacks and check out traditional artworks.

The first Sichuan Festival of Cultural Consumption as well as the Yangtze River Temple Fair will be held from Feb 5 to Feb 26 in the city of Zigong, located in southeastern Sichuan. Zigong has long been hailed as the birthplace of Sichuan food. Visitors can also go to Zigong to visit the Sanxingdui Museum.

The 7th Chengdu Du Fu Festival will kick off on Feb 5. With its theme of poetry and flowers, the event will include a poetry festival and a plum flower exhibition.

Folk customs

Leshan, an ancient town in the northwest of Sichuan province, has a history of more than 800 years. The fair boasts more than 100 lighting displays over more than 26 hectares. The Lantern Fairs in Zigong, Sichuan province, which have a history of more than 800 years, attracts visitors from home and abroad.

The city of Langzhong, located in the northeast region of Sichuan, has long been hailed as the birthplace of the Spring Festival holiday. Legend has it that astrologer Luo Xiahong during the Han Dynasty set the first day of the first lunar month, which is the start of Spring Festival, in the city. Across the city, there will be lots of performances celebrating the holiday.

The 48th Chengdu International Panda and South Korea, Singapore and Malaysia. Each year, major attractions in Chengdu will hold a variety of colorful activities to celebrate the coming Spring Festival.

The city of Langzhong, located in the northeast region of Sichuan, has long been hailed as the birthplace of the Spring Festival holiday. Legend has it that astrologer Luo Xiahong during the Han Dynasty set the first day of the first lunar month, which is the start of Spring Festival, in the city. Across the city, there will be lots of performances celebrating the holiday.

The city’s organizers have been invited to perform at the 22nd Zigong International Lantern Fair, which began in late January, will run through the middle of March. Across a 10-hectare park, the event consists of 110,000 modern lighting displays in four categories: Amazing China, Romantic France, Great China and Happy Chinese New Year. Visitors can enjoy performances from French clowns and 3-D balloons from France, Great China and Happy Chinese New Year.