

NEW OCEAN ROUTE

To North America:
Via the northwestern sea corridor of the Arctic Ocean, the route covers 15,500 km and takes 29 days from Changchun to North America.

To Europe:
Via the northeastern sea corridor of the Arctic Ocean, the route covers 14,430 km and takes 27 days from Changchun to the destinations.

From Changchun to Hunchun and via the Arctic Ocean, sea routes are part of the 21st Century Maritime Silk Road, and are more convenient than traditional routes linking to Europe and North America.

To Europe:
Traditional sea corridor covers 19,610 km, and takes 36 days.
