Songqiao Woodwork Atlas: Traditional Chinese Furniture Construction Diagrams (Complete in Four Volumes)

by Qiao Zilong

- ISBN: 9787549981441
- Publication Date: May. 2020
- Price: 3980.00 RMB
- Language: Chinese

This four-volume set features approximately 80 standard construction drawings of classic pieces of traditional Chinese furniture. Each drawing was meticulously hand-rendered by Mr. Qiao Zilong according to modern technical standards, providing detailed visual analyses of each item's form, joinery, and dimensions. The work promotes the standardization and scientific study of traditional furniture making. Beyond serving as design references for manufacturers, these standard drawings also provide foundational data inputs for modern CNC (Computer Numerical Control) machining equipment.

Echoes of Elegance on Paper: Songqiao Craftsmanship of Chinese Furniture

by Qiao Zilong

- ISBN: 9787549989522
- Publication Date: Dec. 2020
- Price: 1280.00 RMB
- Language: Chinese

This book presents full-scale (1:1) standard construction drawings of 42 classic pieces of Ming-style furniture, offering a comprehensive and meticulous representation of traditional craftsmanship across various types—including stools, chairs, tables, stands, desks, cabinets, cupboards, lattice shelves, daybeds, and beds. It serves as a practical research resource for the preservation and development of Ming furniture culture and woodworking techniques.

In addition to the technical drawings, Mr. Qiao Zilong has created both line drawings and ink sketches for each piece. These artistic renderings complement the precise diagrams, illuminating the cultural spirit embedded within craftsmanship—what the Chinese tradition calls wenxin (the literary or artistic heart).

Echoes of Elegance on Paper is a work of craftsmanship and benevolence. It aims to resolve doubts, share methods, and ensure the continued transmission of traditional Chinese furniture-making techniques. In the act of preserving heritage, it encourages innovation and renewal.

Practical Study of Chinese Herbal Formulas and Materia Medica

by Li Wenlin

- ISBN: 9787549977086
- Publication Date: Dec. 2020
- Price: 135.00 RMB
- Language: Chinese

Based on the application principle of aligning theory, methods, formulas, and medicinals, this book adopts a progressive structure that integrates theory with practice. Commonly used Chinese medicinal herbs and formulas are introduced in an integrated manner according to their clinical efficacy.

The first chapter provides fundamental knowledge of Chinese materia medica and formulas. Each subsequent chapter begins by categorizing formulas and herbs by their therapeutic functions, introducing the definitions, functions, properties, compatibility characteristics, and precautions of each category.

It then presents detailed information on commonly used Chinese herbs, including their sources, botanical origins, regions of production, harvesting and processing methods, properties and meridian tropism, therapeutic effects, common combinations, dosage and administration, and usage cautions. Illustrations of raw herbs and decoction pieces are included to aid clinical identification and application.

Finally, the book introduces representative formulas primarily composed of herbs from the same category, detailing their original sources, composition, dosage, efficacy, interpretation of therapeutic rationale, and clinical applications.
